

Please do not allow changes to Wisconsin's Do Not Call List so companies can contact you by phone for 18 months. Once you have dealt with a company you know their business. If you choose not to use their services, you should not be bombarded with telemarketers trying to get your business back. Do Not Call is a private choice and allows people privacy.